Christina Fernandez is of counsel in Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher's New York office and a member of the firm's Real Estate Department. She concentrates her practice on real estate finance transactions representing investment banks, debt funds and institutional lenders in the origination and restructuring of mortgage and mezzanine loans for the acquisition and refinancing of properties throughout the United States. In addition to traditional loan structures, Christina also represents clients on transactions that involve CRE CLOs, loan-on-loan financings and repurchase facilities.

Christina was recognized by CRE Finance Council as a 20 Under 40 professional who has positively impacted the commercial real estate finance industry in 2023. She is also listed in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in America™ 2023-2027 for Real Estate Law.

Christina graduated magna cum laude from the University of Florida with a B.S. in Business, and received her JD from Northwestern University. She is admitted in the states of New York and Florida.
