Washington, D.C.

Jennifer Fitzgerald is of counsel in the Washington D.C. office of Gibson Dunn and is a member of the firm's Tax Practice Group.

Her experience includes tax planning for investment fund formations, real estate transactions, REITs, public and private mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, restructurings, and investor-level tax planning. She has provided advice on structuring investments in real estate, debt, and other investments for investment funds, foreign governments, other non-U.S. investors, corporations and individuals. She has also obtained private letter rulings from the Internal Revenue Service.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Jennifer was an associate at another international law firm where she gained experience with the tax aspects of securitizations including REMICs and CLOs.

Jennifer received her Juris Doctor from the University of Virginia School of Law, where she was senior production editor of the Virginia Law & Business Review. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Anthropology, magna cum laude, from the College of William and Mary.

She is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and the State of New York.
