Hayley Fritchie is Of Counsel in the New York office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher where she practices with the firm's Labor & Employment Practice Group.

She has experience in a wide range of employment litigation matters, representing clients across various industries, including retail, financial institutions, and fitness. Hayley has experience assisting in single-plaintiff and class and collective action litigations, in both state and federal court. She also advises clients on day-to-day labor and employment issues, and conducts investigations into sensitive employment matters.

After receiving her Juris Doctor magna cum laude, Order of the Coif, from Tulane Law School in 2016, Hayley completed two federal clerkships and was an associate in the Labor & Employment department of Proskauer Rose. She graduated, cum laude, from Tulane University in 2013.

Hayley has been recognized as a "Rising Star" by New York Super Lawyers since 2020.

She is admitted to practice in the States of New York and Louisiana, and before the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.
