Ferdinand Fromholzer is a partner in the Munich office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the firm's Transactional Department. Ferdinand's practice focuses on corporate law, in particular advising strategic and private equity investors on public and private M&A transactions. He also advises public companies on a wide range of legal issues, including disclosure requirements under capital market law, annual shareholders' meetings, corporate structure measures, and ESG aspects. He is also experienced in counseling on the duties and obligations of directors and officers, including in the context of compliance investigations.

Handelsblatt / The Best Lawyers™ 2025/2026 list him among the best lawyers in Germany for Corporate Law, M&A, Private Equity and Corporate Governance and Compliance. Kanzleimonitor 2025/2026 lists him among the leading lawyers for Stock Corporation and Corporate Governance law, a ranking which for several years recognized him as the most frequently recommended lawyer in that category ("The gold medal goes to Dr. Ferdinand Fromholzer, as in the previous year"; 2024/2025). The JUVE Handbook 2025/2026 recognizes him as "frequently recommended" in the categories Corporate, M&A and Private Equity. Clients described him as "very knowledgeable" (JUVE Handbook 2019/2020) and as an "excellent lawyer with always creative and solution-oriented approaches" who is "very pragmatic and experienced" (JUVE Handbook 2018/2019). Ferdinand is recommended by Who's Who Legal Germany 2025 for Corporate Governance and M&A. The Legal 500 Germany and The Legal 500 EMEA recommended him in the category Corporate in 2026 and in the categories M&A, Private Equity and Internal Investigations in 2025. Over the years, clients described him as "characterized by distinctive objectivity, legal expertise and reliability". He was named an "excellent and very experienced advisor" who has a "broad, valuable wealth of experience" and "in addition to his in-depth knowledge, also has the ability to argue constructively, objectively and in a result-oriented manner in difficult negotiation situations, thereby making a significant contribution to the success of the respective transaction." And "Ferdinand Fromholzer is characterized by excellent detailed knowledge of the projects, very good accessibility and overview. Dr. Fromholzer can always provide information on the status of individual disciplines (e.g. tax, IP, etc.). His negotiation is tailored to the respective counterpart."
