Matt Aidan Getz is a senior litigation associate in the Los Angeles office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the firm's Appellate and Constitutional Law Practice Group. His practice focuses on appellate matters, typically involving complex commercial, constitutional, or class action litigation. He has argued several appeals and drafted briefs in well over seventy appeals and in other cases in federal and state courts across the country. Matt has been recognized by Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America for Appellate Practice (2025–2026) and as an appellate "Rising Star" by Super Lawyers.

Highlights include:

- Persuaded the U.S. Supreme Court to hold unanimously that plaintiffs suing under Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933 must plead and prove that they bought shares registered under the allegedly misleading registration statement. Slack Technologies, LLC v. Pirani (U.S. No. 22-200). On remand, secured a unanimous, published decision from the Ninth Circuit holding that the same requirement applies to claims under Section 12(a)(2) of the Securities Act. Pirani v. Slack Technologies, Inc. (9th Cir. No. 20-16419).
- Argued before and persuaded the California Court of Appeal to reverse, by published opinion, an order denying a motion to compel arbitration in a case involving California Health & Safety Code disclosure requirements. Dougherty v. U.S. Behavioral Health Plan (Cal. Ct. App. No. E079741).
- Argued before the California Court of Appeal and secured an opinion affirming an order rejecting emergency care providers' efforts to impose a reimbursement obligation on health insurers subject to the California Insurance Code. Prime Healthcare Centinela, LLC v. UnitedHealthcare Insurance Co. (Cal. Ct. App. No. B334746).
- Secured unanimous Supreme Court decision vacating an adverse profits-disgorgement award in a landmark case involving the presumption of corporate separateness and available remedies for trademark infringement under the Lanham Act. Dewberry Group, Inc. v. Dewberry Engineers Inc. (U.S. No. 23-900).
- Convinced the Ninth Circuit to affirm denial of class certification in a case of first impression involving claims challenging Liberty Mutual's methods of settling insurance claims for totaled vehicles. Lara v. First National Insurance Co. of America (9th Cir. No. 21-35126).
- Secured reversal of class certification for State Farm in a published Fifth Circuit opinion similarly involving claims challenging the insurer's method of estimating the actual cash value of totaled vehicles. Bourque v. State Farm Mutual Automobile Insurance Co. (5th Cir. No. 22-30126).
- Won a landmark victory for Reddit in the first case of any federal court of appeals to address the scope of FOSTA's exception to immunity under section 230 of the
