Shaquille Grant is an associate in the Dallas office of Gibson Dunn, where he is a member of the firm's Litigation Group. His practice focuses on high-stakes complex commercial litigation on behalf of corporate clients, with experience spanning contract disputes, product liability, putative class actions, fiduciary duty claims, and labor and employment matters. Shaquille also maintains an active pro bono practice, with a particular emphasis on post-conviction representation, including wrongful conviction cases.

Shaquille received his J.D. magna cum laude from SMU Dedman School of Law in 2020. During law school, he served as Associate Managing Editor of the Journal of Air Law and Commerce; Chief Counsel of the W.W. Caruth, Jr. Child Advocacy Clinic; and Treasurer of the Black Law Students Association. He received his B.A. in Economics magna cum laude from Hendrix College in 2017.

Shaquille is admitted to practice in Texas.
