

Lafayette Greenfield II

Of Counsel

lgreenfield@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 202.955.8524

Washington, D.C.

Lafayette Greenfield II is an Of Counsel in the Washington, DC office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher and a member of the firm's Transportation and Space Practice Group.

Lafayette's practice focuses on corporate, transactional and regulatory matters relating to the aerospace, satellite, telecommunications, data center and cloud computing industries. He has extensive experience advising companies, investors and financial institutions operating or investing in these industries on a wide range of corporate and financing transactions, including equity investments, mergers & acquisitions, joint ventures, securitizations, project and leveraged financings, public offerings, and financial restructurings. In addition, Lafayette has deep expertise helping clients structure and negotiate purchase and services contracts involving aerospace, satellite, telecommunications, data center and cloud computing assets and services.

Lafayette is a member of the New York and District of Columbia bars. He received his Juris Doctor from Howard University School of Law in 2013, where he was a member of the Howard Law Journal. He received a Bachelor of Science in political science from Radford University in 2009.

Capabilities

Transportation and Space
Aerospace and Defense
Artificial Intelligence
Data Centers and Digital Infrastructure
Technology Transactions

Credentials

Education

Howard University - 2013 Juris Doctor
Radford University - 2009 Bachelor of Science

Admissions

New York Bar
District of Columbia Bar