

Arthur Halliday

Associate Attorney

ahalliday@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 213.229.7051

Los Angeles

Arthur Halliday is a litigation associate in the Los Angeles office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. In addition to his litigation practice, Arthur is a member of Gibson Dunn's working group on carbon offsets, and advises clients on use of carbon offsets, carbon-neutrality strategies, and related litigation and government investigations.

He earned his law degree in 2022 from Columbia Law School, where he was named a James Kent Scholar and awarded the Ruth Bader Ginsburg Prize. At Columbia, Arthur worked as an Articles Editor on the Columbia Journal of Law & Social Problems. He also served as co-president of the California Society, as a research assistant for Professor Elizabeth Emens, and as a teaching assistant for Professor Jane Ginsburg and Professor Michael Gerrard.

Arthur graduated from Wesleyan University in 2016, earning a bachelor's degree with High Honors in the College of Social Studies.

He is a member of the State Bar of California and is admitted to practice before the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

Capabilities

Environmental Litigation and Mass Tort
Administrative Law and Regulatory Practice
Appellate and Constitutional Law
Energy Regulation and Litigation
Energy and Infrastructure
Power and Renewables

Credentials

Education

Columbia University - 2022 Juris Doctor
Wesleyan University - 2016 Bachelor of Arts

Admissions

California Bar