Brennan Halloran is a corporate associate in the New York office of Gibson Dunn. He is a member of the firm's Mergers and Acquisitions and Private Equity Practice Groups.

Brennan represents both public and private companies and financial sponsors in connection with mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures, minority investments, restructurings, and other complex corporate transactions. He also advises clients with respect to governance and general corporate matters.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Brennan was a corporate associate at an international law firm in New York. He earned his Juris Doctor in 2017 from Harvard Law School, where he served as an Article Editor for the Harvard Journal of Law & Technology and, as a student attorney for the Harvard Law Entrepreneurship Project, provided pro bono legal research and analysis to entrepreneurs at Harvard and MIT. Brennan earned his Bachelor of Arts degree from Rice University in 2014.

He is admitted to practice in the State of New York.
