Houston Dallas

Hillary H. Holmes is Co-Chair of Gibson Dunn's Capital Markets Practice Group, Co-Partner-in-Charge of the firm's Houston office, and a member of the firm's Executive Committee. She is also a member of the firm's Securities Regulation and Corporate Governance, Mergers & Acquisitions, and Energy & Infrastructure Practice Groups.

Recognized for her sound judgment, technical sophistication, and creative approach, Hillary is frequently called upon to lead complex, high-profile transactions and advise clients through critical business and governance decisions. Clients value her ability to combine legal excellence with commercial insight, particularly in high-stakes situations requiring practical, decisive counsel.

Hillary's practice is centered on capital markets transactions, where she represents issuers, underwriters, and investors in a broad range of equity and debt offerings, including initial public offerings, follow-on and secondary equity offerings, investment-grade and high-yield debt offerings, PIPE transactions, at-the-market programs, preferred equity financings, and tender offers. She has experience with complex structures such as MLPs, yieldcos and Up-Cs, and led the largest and first global retail IPO. She regularly advises companies across industries on transformative capital-raising transactions, with particular depth of experience in the energy and infrastructure sectors.

Hillary also regularly advises boards of directors, special committees, and executive leadership teams on public and private mergers and acquisitions, take-private transactions, fiduciary duty matters, internal investigations, and complex governance issues. She also serves as trusted securities and governance counsel to public and pre-IPO companies, helping clients navigate disclosure requirements, SEC regulation, corporate governance best practices, and evolving regulatory developments.

A distinctive part of Hillary's practice is her role as Texas corporate counsel, including advising companies on redomestications to Texas and related governance, legal, and market considerations.

Hillary is consistently ranked among the nation's leading lawyers for capital markets, energy transactions, and corporate matters. Chambers USA and Chambers Global have ranked Hillary in Band 1 in both Capital Markets and Nationwide Energy Transactions for many years. She has been named an Energy MVP by Law360 twice, is a longtime member of the Lawdragon Leading Dealmakers in America, and has been recognized by BTI as a Client Service All-Star and by Forbes in the inaugural Top Women Lawyers in America. Her additional honors include Houston Corporate Lawyer of the Year (twice), Most Effective Dealmaker by Texas Lawyer, 25 Most Influential Women in Energy, Capital Markets Trailblazer, AWA Premier Woman in Law, Houston Leading Businesswoman, and Law 360 40 under 40. She also serves on the invitation-only Corporate Laws Committee of the American Bar Association's Business Law Section (responsible for the MBCA) and the Executive Committee of the KBH Energy Center. She is a recipient of the award for
