Eric Hwang is an associate in the New York office of Gibson Dunn. He is a member of the Business Restructuring & Reorganization Practice Group and Liability Management & Special Situations Practice Group. He represents creditors, private equity funds and other financial institutions in a wide variety of liability management and distressed credit transactions.

Representations include*:

- An ad hoc group of lenders and noteholders to Zayo, a communications infrastructure provider, on its $8.5 billion amend and extend transaction and structured financing commitment for Zayo's acquisition of fiber solutions provider Crown Castle.
- Diameter Capital Partners in a $250 million drop-down financing to Liberty Puerto Rico.
- An ad hoc group of DIP lenders and term loan lenders in the $1.1 billion new money debtor-in-possession financing and chapter 11 cases of First Brands Group LLC, a global automotive aftermarket parts supplier.
- Cision in connection with a $250 million new money financing and a $2.4 billion recapitalization of its credit facilities and senior notes.
- Oregon Tool in connection with a $150 million new money financing and a $1.3 billion recapitalization of its credit facilities and senior notes.
- United Site Services in a $300 million new money financing and the recapitalization of $2.6 billion of secured and unsecured liabilities.
- Aventiv Technologies in a new money and uptier refinancing transaction involving more than $1.6 billion of first and second lien liabilities.
- Elliott Investment Management as the anchor lender to Magenta Buyer in drop-down liability management transactions that raised $400 million of new money and refinanced over $4 billion of 1L and 2L liabilities.
- An ad hoc group of term lenders to Maverick Gaming in a comprehensive amendment and uptier exchange.
- An ad hoc group of term lenders to LifeScan Global in connection with an amendment and extension of 1L and 2L credit facilities.
- An ad hoc group of 1L and 2L lenders to Mitel in connection with a new money and uptier financing transaction.
