Elizabeth Ising is a partner in Gibson Dunn's Washington, D.C. office and Co-Chair of the firm's Securities Regulation and Corporate Governance Practice Group. She is also a member of the firm's Hostile M&A and Shareholder Activism team and Financial Institutions Practice Group. She advises clients, including public companies and their boards of directors, on corporate governance, securities law and ESG, and sustainability matters and executive compensation best practices and disclosures. Representative matters include advising on Securities and Exchange Commission reporting requirements, proxy disclosures, SASB and TCFD disclosures, director independence matters, proxy advisory services, board and committee charters and governance guidelines and disclosure controls and procedures. Beth also regularly counsels public companies on shareholder activism issues, including on shareholder proposals and preparing for and responding to hedge fund and corporate governance activism. She also advises non-profit organizations on corporate governance issues.

Beth was recognized as a member of Lawdragon's Green 500: Leaders in Environmental Law guide for the third year in a row due to her work in ESG compliance and disputes (2023 - 2025). For the fifth year, she was also named in Lawdragon's 500 Leading Dealmakers in America guide, which recognizes lawyers who "set the pace for lawyering in the financial world," in recognition of her work in Corporate Governance and Securities Regulation (2021, 2022, 2024, 2025, 2026). BTI Consulting named Beth a MVP to its 2018 and 2019 BTI Client Service All-Stars lists, recognizing the "lawyers who truly stand out as delivering the absolute best client service time and time again" as determined by a poll of corporate counsel. Chambers USA has recognized her as a top Securities: Regulation attorney in each of the last nine years. She also has been named to The Best Lawyers in America list annually since 2018. Beth was named to the 2016, 2017, and 2023 editions of Who's Who Legal: M&A and Governance, a guide based on independent client and peer surveys. In 2017, she was elected as a fellow of the American College of Governance Counsel. She is a member of the Advisory Board of Northwestern University's Securities Regulation Institute, is a member of the Advisory Board of the John L. Weinberg Center for Corporate Governance at the University of Delaware and previously was named a "Rising Star of Corporate Governance" by Yale School of Management's Center for Corporate Governance and Performance.

Beth is a frequent author and speaker on securities law and corporate governance issues. Her publications include "ESG Legal Update: What Corporate Governance and ESG Professionals Need to Know" (published in conjunction with the Society for Corporate Governance in June 2020), "Legal Risks and ESG Disclosures: What Corporate Secretaries Should Know" (published in conjunction with the Society for Corporate Governance in June 2018), an article in the American Bar Association's (ABA) Business Law Today titled "Recent Developments Related to the SEC's Shareholder Proposal Rule", the article "Top 11 Legal and Regulatory Tips for Boards of Directors" published by Corporate Board Member and articles in Insights – The Corporate & Securities Law Advisor.
