Washington, D.C.

Kunal Jhaveri is an associate in the Washington, D.C. office of Gibson Dunn, where he is a member of the firm's Antitrust & Competition and Litigation Practice Groups.

Kunal's practice focuses on complex litigation, merger review, and government investigations. His experience extends to drafting dispositive motions in federal courts and arbitration forums, managing critical data analytics and document discovery workstreams, and coordinating with expert consultants to optimize client advocacy. Kunal also maintains an active pro bono practice and has advised clients in veterans rights, nonprofit corporate governance, and housing rights.

Kunal received his J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School and served as articles editor of the Michigan Journal of International Law. While at law school, he also served as an advanced student attorney in the Zell Entrepreneurship Clinic and President of the Society for Space Law and the Law of the Sea. Kunal received his undergraduate degree in Economics and Political Science, cum laude, from the University of California, Los Angeles. Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, he was an associate at another large international law firm and served as a judicial intern to The Honorable Timothy M. Reif of the U.S. Court of International Trade.

Kunal is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and Maryland.
