Priyah Kaul is an associate in the San Francisco office of Gibson Dunn. She practices in the firm's Litigation Department, focusing on securities litigation, class actions, and other complex civil litigation. Priyah has a wide range of experience representing individuals and companies, including leading technology companies, in high-stakes cases in state and federal court.

After law school, Priyah served as a law clerk to the Honorable Yvonne Gonzalez Rogers, U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California. Prior to re-joining Gibson Dunn, she was senior counsel at a boutique civil litigation firm and a deputy voter protection director for a national political campaign.

Priyah received her J.D. from the University of Michigan Law School in 2015, where she was an Articles Editor for the Michigan Journal of Law Reform. She earned her B.A. in Business-Economics and Political Science from the University of California, Los Angeles in 2006. Before attending law school, Priyah was an analyst at a multinational financial services company.

Priyah is admitted to practice law in the State of California.
