Ina Kosova is an associate in the San Francisco office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP where she currently practices in the firm's Intellectual Property and Litigation Practice Groups. Ina has represented a wide array of clients in industries including consumer electronics, technology, investments and banking, and energy. Ina has experience litigating patent cases and antitrust cases from complaint to pre-trial, including managing discovery, taking and defending fact and expert depositions, drafting expert reports, and drafting dispositive motions. She also has experience defending financial institutions, corporations, and individuals in investigations conducted by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Department of Justice.

Ina received her Juris Doctorate from the New York University School of Law in 2021. At NYU Law, Ina interned at the Civil Division of DOJ-EDNY where she worked on mortgage-backed securities litigation and in the NY Attorney General's office where she worked on antitrust review of pending mergers. She received her Bachelor of Arts in Peace, War, and Defense from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill as a Morehead-Cain Scholar in 2016.

Ina is admitted to practice law in the States of California and New York, as well as before the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York.
