

Meir Lax

Associate Attorney

mlax@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 212.351.6243

New York

Meir Lax is an associate in the New York office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the firm's Business Restructuring & Reorganization Practice Group and Liability Management & Special Situations Practice Group. He represents credit investors, equity sponsors and borrowers in a wide range of liability management transactions, distressed credit situations and private credit financings.

Representations include:

- Oregon Tool in connection with a $150 million new money financing and a $1.3 billion recapitalization of its credit facilities and senior notes.
- Petmate in a new money drop-down financing and out-of-court restructuring of over $800 million of liabilities.
- Ares Capital Management in a $250 million financing to FORTNA Group.
- Abacus Life in a $150 million private credit financing.
- An ad hoc group of lenders to Rodan + Fields in a $75 million new money financing and uptier transaction of $550 million of secured debt.
- HPS in a $385 million private credit facility to Ribbon Communications.
- TCW Asset Management in a private credit refinancing for Florida Marine Transporters.
- Angelo Gordon in a private credit leveraged recapitalization facility to Priority Waste.
- Diameter Capital Partners in a private credit financing to Servpro.
- Apollo Global Management in a $1 billion secured notes financing to Norwegian Cruise Lines.
- An ad hoc group of lenders to Selina Hospitality in a discounted notes exchange.

Meir earned his Juris Doctor from Georgetown University Law Center and his Bachelor of Science from Excelsior College.

Capabilities

Business Restructuring and Reorganization
Finance
Liability Management and Special Situations

Credentials

Education

Georgetown University - 2022 Juris Doctor
Excelsior College - 2019 Bachelor of Science

Admissions

New York Bar