Sarah Lefsky is a senior associate in the New York office of Gibson Dunn. She is a member of the firm's Finance Practice Group.

Sarah represents asset managers and lenders in a range of financing transactions involving investment funds, including private equity, private credit, secondaries and real estate funds. She maintains a broad and sophisticated practice, with experience in subscription-based, NAV-based and hybrid facilities, rated note feeder and collateralized fund obligation transactions and other bespoke secured and structured financings.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Sarah was an associate at another leading international law firm as a member of the Finance practice group.

Sarah earned her Juris Doctor cum laude from New York University School of Law in 2018 and a Bachelor of Arts degree in Government from Cornell University in 2011.

Sarah is admitted to practice in the State of New York.
