

Jim Lischeske

Associate Attorney

jlischeske@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 303.298.5719

Denver

Jim Lischeske is a litigation associate in the Denver office of Gibson Dunn. He is a member of the firm's Litigation Department, and he works with the Intellectual Property Practice Group.

Jim earned his Juris Doctor from the University of California, Berkeley, School of Law. While in law school, Jim was an associate editor for the Berkeley Technology Law Journal. In addition, Jim was a founding Branch Director of the Technology and Intellectual Property Branch of Berkeley Law's Board of Advocates, and he represented Berkeley in the Giles S. Rich Moot Court Competition and the USPTO Patent Drafting Competition.

Prior to law school, Jim earned his undergraduate degree in Chemical Engineering from the University of California, Davis and his master's degree in Chemical Engineering from the Colorado School of Mines. He also worked as a research scientist and authored peer reviewed publications on the conversion of biomass to fuels with an emphasis on computational modeling.

Jim is admitted to practice law in the State of Colorado.

Capabilities

Intellectual Property
Life Sciences
Technology Litigation

Credentials

Education

University of California - Berkeley - 2024
Juris Doctor
Colorado School of Mines - 2020 Master of Science
University of California - Davis - 2009
Bachelor of Science

Admissions

Colorado Bar