Jillian London is a partner in the Century City office of Gibson Dunn. She practices in the firm's Litigation, Media, Entertainment & Technology, Class Actions, and Appellate and Constitutional Law Practice Groups. Jillian is a member of the firm's Pro Bono Committee.

She has represented clients in complex commercial litigation in both the trial courts and on appeal. Jillian has extensive experience litigating all stages of commercial disputes in the technology and entertainment sectors, and has particular experience in media relations, First Amendment, breach of contract, antitrust, and class action disputes.

Jillian was named one of Lawdragon's 500 Leading Global Entertainment, Sports, and Media Lawyers. She has also been recognized by Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America for Entertainment and Sports Law, and Appellate Practice (2024). She was also named in Variety's Hollywood's New Leaders list for 2023.

Recent representative matters include:

- Representing a major entertainment company in profit participation disputes.
- Representing a major technology company in multidistrict class action litigation related to consumer fraud claims, which resulted in a favorable settlement for the client.
- Representing AMC in profit participation and breach of contract litigations concerning the television series, The Walking Dead.
- Representing a major pharmaceutical company in a purported "reverse payment" antitrust action in which direct and indirect purchasers sought billions of dollars in damages.
- Securing dismissal of a breach of fiduciary duty action against the Trustee of a billion dollar Estate.
- Representing a major technology company in a putative class action concerning misclassification of its workers.
- Representing an entertainment company in relation to a prior contractual dispute over the rights in certain music recordings.
- Securing a new trial for an automobile manufacturer in a dispute with a former motor vehicle franchisee after a jury had awarded $256 million in damages.
- Obtaining affirmance from the Eleventh Circuit of a summary judgment ruling in favor of a for-profit educational institution against False Claims Act allegations.

Jillian received her law degree magna cum laude from Harvard Law School in 2013, where she was a technical editor for the Harvard Civil Rights-Civil Liberties Law Review and the President of the Board of Student Advisers, and received the Dean's Award for
