Brian M. Lutz is a litigation partner in the San Francisco and New York offices of Gibson Dunn. Brian serves as a Co-Chair of the Firm's National Securities Litigation Practice Group, which is consistently recognized as one of the leading securities litigation practices in the country. Brian's practice focuses on complex commercial litigation, with an emphasis on corporate control contests, securities class actions, and shareholder actions alleging breaches of fiduciary duties. He represents and advises clients in connection with mergers and acquisitions, shareholder activist matters, and corporate governance issues, and regularly represents and advises boards of directors and board committees on litigation issues. Brian also handles a wide range of other business litigation, including real estate disputes, employment matters, and trade secrets litigation.

Brian is ranked by Chambers for securities litigation and is listed as pre-approved panel counsel for the major D&O insurance carriers. Brian has been named a Securities MVP by Law360, and was twice named a "Rising Star" by Law360 in the Securities category—a distinction awarded annually to five attorneys nationwide under the age of 40. Brian was also named "Litigator of the Week" by AmLaw Litigation Daily (an American Lawyer publication) for his lead role in winning a rare preliminary injunction that prevented a hostile takeover attempt. In addition, The Legal 500 United States places Brian in its "Hall of Fame" for M&A Litigation Defense and as a "Leading Lawyer" in Securities Litigation Defense. Brian was recently recognized by Benchmark Litigation as a "Litigation Star."

Brian received his Juris Doctor from Harvard Law School. He received his Bachelor of Arts in History and Political Science from the University of Michigan, where he was a member of Phi Beta Kappa.
