Frank Mangiatordi is a partner in the New York office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher and a member of the Real Estate Practice Group. His practice focuses on real estate finance matters including origination and purchase and sale of balance sheet, securitized, syndicated and mezzanine loans (including land, construction, repositioning, bridge and permanent loans), preferred equity transactions, distressed asset workouts, reorganizations, and the exercise of remedies (including, in connection with acquiring assets in lieu of foreclosure). Specifically, Frank has substantial experience working out individual loans and entire capital structures for both lenders and borrowers as well as exercising remedies on behalf of lenders, and structuring and negotiating complex financing arrangements.

Frank also has experience counseling on portfolio and single-asset acquisitions, dispositions, joint ventures, developments, sale/leasebacks, and leases. His clients have included institutional investors, sovereign wealth funds, lenders, borrowers, buyers, sellers, landlords, tenants and developers.

In recognition of his work, Frank has been ranked by Chambers USA in its New York Real Estate: Finance category and named one of Lawdragon's 500 Leading Real Estate Lawyers.

Frank's recent experience includes:*

- Blue Owl Digital Infrastructure and STACK Infrastructure in the financings for numerous data center campuses and other sophisticated digital infrastructure transactions.
- A Sovereign Wealth Fund in the $6.9 billion financing for an acquisition of over 300 industrial assets. The financing included six separate loans for approximately $4.2 billion of proceeds in the aggregate.
- Ivanhoe Cambridge, Inc. in its more than $3 billion acquisition of IDI Logistics, LLC, which involved multiple lender negotiations and entry into a joint venture with Oxford Properties.
- The sponsor of Yotel New York in its workout and modification of mortgage financing, mezzanine financing and preferred equity, and subsequent refinancings.
- Fortress Investment Group in the financing of a senior mortgage loan (i.e., note-
