Mona Mosavi is a corporate associate in the New York office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the firm's Technology Transactions and Strategic Sourcing and Commercial Transactions Practice Groups. Mona's practice focuses on a range of corporate and commercial transactions, including technology transactions, complex outsourcing transactions, and mergers and acquisitions. She maintains an active pro bono practice, including representing non-profit organizations on transactional matters and representing individuals in asylum and immigration matters.

Mona earned her Juris Doctor in 2022 from Columbia Law School, where she was a Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar. While in law school, she served as a staff editor for the Columbia Journal of Law and the Arts and the Co-President of the Middle Eastern Law Students Association. Mona graduated with Phi Beta Kappa honors in 2019 from the University of California, Los Angeles, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in economics and political science.

Mona currently serves as a Co-Chair of the firm's Middle Eastern and North African Affinity Group in New York. She is admitted to practice in the State of New York and State of California.
