Eve Mrozek is a corporate partner in the New York office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the firm's Investment Funds Practice Group. Eve's experienced and multidisciplinary practice includes advising on the legal, regulatory and commercial challenges facing a diverse group of investment fund clients, ranging from multi-billion dollar fund managers, to middle and lower-middle-market firms and firms raising their first institutional fund. Eve specializes in advising real estate private equity sponsors in fund formation across a variety of real estate assets. In addition to traditional fund formation, Eve advises private equity sponsors and institutional investors on major strategic issues, including incentive arrangements, governance issues, succession planning, fund recapitalizations and restructurings, the formation of continuation funds and complex strategic minority investments in existing firms. Eve seeks to become a long-term partner to her clients by proactively providing market insights and advice not only during a fundraise, but during all phases of a fund's life cycle.

Eve has been recognized as a leading lawyer by:

- Private Funds CFO as a Legal Rising Star, 2023
