Aakarsh Narula is an associate in Gibson Dunn's London office and a member of the firm's Antitrust and Competition practice group.

Aakarsh has experience advising clients on merger control and national security filings across multiple jurisdictions, including the EU, UK, Australia, India, and China.

Aakarsh has assisted clients spanning industries such as snacks, medical devices, cybersecurity, software technology, and pharmaceuticals in navigating merger control and foreign investment clearance processes before competition and trade authorities worldwide, including in the European Union, the UK, Australia, India, and China.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Aakarsh was an associate at another international law firm. Before relocating to London, he practiced with a leading antitrust team in New Delhi, where he advised on technology-sector cases, abuse of dominance investigations, and merger control filings for major cross-border transactions.
