Houston

Tiffany Penner is an associate in Gibson Dunn's Houston office. She practices in the firm's Litigation Department and has represented clients in state and federal proceedings in a wide range of subject matters, including data privacy, business torts, energy, and products liability.

Before joining the firm, Tiffany served as a law clerk to the Honorable Robert L. Wilkins of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, and the Honorable Jeffrey V. Brown of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas. Before law school, Tiffany worked for the International Space Station Program at NASA.

Tiffany received her J.D., summa cum laude, from the University of Houston Law Center. While there, she served as an Articles Editor for the Houston Law Review and successfully competed in several trial and appellate advocacy competitions. Upon graduation, she was awarded the Presidential Service Award, which is awarded annually to four outstanding graduates, and inducted into the Orders of the Coif, Barristers, and Scribes. Tiffany received her B.A., summa cum laude, in Political Science from Wichita State University.

Tiffany is a member of the Texas Bar, and she is admitted to practice in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas.
