Patrick Perrier is a corporate associate in Gibson Dunn's Houston office where he is a member of the firm's Finance, Liability Management and Special Situations and Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Groups. Patrick regularly plays a crucial role in advising ad hoc groups and other credit stakeholders in connection with the domestic and global markets' most cutting edge and complex liability management, special situation and other debt financing transactions. He frequently counsels clients on financing and intercreditor matters and negotiates credit documentation in connection with debtor-in-possession, rescue, exit and other distressed financings, debt exchanges, workouts and restructurings. Additionally, he regularly represents borrowers (including sponsors and their portfolio companies) and lenders in connection with transactions involving acquisition financing, asset-based lending (including reserve-based lending for oil and gas transactions), cash-flow based lending, investment-grade lending, preferred equity investments, bridge financing, mezzanine financing and subordinated debt financing.

Patrick earned his Juris Doctor from Vanderbilt University Law School in 2021, where he served as the Managing Authorities Editor for the Vanderbilt Law Review and was selected as a member of the Order of the Coif. He also was a recipient of Vanderbilt's Law and Business Certificate and a member of the Commodore cross country program. Patrick earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Energy Resources Engineering from Stanford University in 2018, where he was a member of the Cardinal cross country and track and field programs.

Patrick's representative matters and clients include:*
