Hanh Pham is a French qualified associate in the Paris office of Gibson Dunn, where she serves as a member of the firm's Finance and Business Restructuring Practice Groups.

Hanh focuses her practice on structured finance and complex cross-border debt restructuring transactions.

She is also involved in syndicated loans, government guaranteed loans and bond issues. Hanh represents both private and listed companies, senior and junior lenders and borrowers in their significant strategic transactions.

As a former member of an investment bank's Compliance team, she also has particular experience in Anti-Money Laundering/Countering the Financing of Terrorism (AML/CFT) and related compliance topics.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Hanh worked for five years as an AML/CFT Compliance Officer within an investment bank and then practiced within the Banking and Finance department of other international law firms in Paris.

Admitted to the Paris Bar, Hanh holds a postgraduate degree in International Business Law and Management from ESSEC Business School, a Master's degree in Comparative Business Law from University Paris 2 - Panthéon-Assas and a degree in Distressed M&A – Restructuring from University Paris 1 – Panthéon-Sorbonne.

She speaks English, French, and Vietnamese fluently.
