Leo Plank is a partner in the Munich office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the firm's Business Restructuring and Reorganization practice group.

He advises hedge funds, debtors and private equity firms on complex, high-stakes financial restructuring and bankruptcy matters. His clients include high-yield and distressed debt investors as well as companies involved in leverage buyouts and multinational restructurings. Leo has been involved in some of the most significant and challenging restructuring cases in recent decades, developing innovative solutions that have served as blueprints for future restructuring projects, such as A.T.U, HETA, and IVG.

Leo is consistently recognized as a market leader in restructuring and insolvency by leading publications and rankings including Chambers Europe, The Legal 500, IFLR1000, Handelsblatt/The Best Lawyers^{TM} in Germany, WirtschaftsWoche and the JUVE Handbook.

His experience includes representing*:

- a group of German and international banks as lenders under LEONI AG's €750 million revolving credit facility on the restructuring of the German automotive supplier through the first-ever large-scale financial restructuring under German Scheme (StaRUG)
- the Flint Group, a global leader in print consumables for the print and packaging industries, on its €1.1 billion recapitalization and restructuring
- an ad hoc bondholder group in the financial restructuring of Adler Real Estate group
- an ad hoc group of noteholders in the successful financial restructuring of Löwen Play group involving a complex debt-for-equity-swap through an English scheme of arrangement
- an ad-hoc group of institutional investors in the bond restructuring of Metalcorp group pursuant to the German Bond Act
- Galapagos SA in its contentious restructuring and subsequent multi-jurisdictional litigation in Germany, Luxembourg, England & Wales and New York, leading to several groundbreaking judgements on COMI isssues and distressed disposals by the European Court of Justice, the German BGH and the English High Court
- several private debt funds in connection with various restructurings
- Agrokor d.d. in its extraordinary administration proceedings in Croatia
- the ad hoc committee of senior bondholders of HETA Asset Resolution (previously Hypo Alpe Adria), recognized as European Restructuring Deal of the Year at the 2017 IFLR Europe Awards
