Charlotte Popp is an associate in the Frankfurt office of Gibson Dunn. She is a member of the firm's International Arbitration, Judgment and Arbitral Award Enforcement, and Litigation Practice Groups.

Charlotte represents clients in international arbitration proceedings as well as in commercial, corporate, and civil disputes before German courts. She also advises and represents clients in internal and sanctions investigations involving cross-border elements.

Charlotte studied law at the University of Münster and at the Roma Tre University in Rome, Italy. After passing her First State Examination, she received her Master of Laws (LL.M.) at Columbia University in 2022, where she focused on international arbitration and served as a research assistant to Professor George A. Bermann. Charlotte successfully passed the New York Bar Exam in 2022; her admission is currently pending. She has been admitted as a German lawyer (Rechtsanwältin) since 2025. Charlotte is admitted to practice as a German lawyer (Rechtsanwältin) and as an Attorney-at-Law in the State of New York.

In addition to her native German, Charlotte is fluent in English and speaks Italian and French.

She is a member of the German-American Lawyers Association (Deutsch-Amerikanische Juristen-Vereinigung e.V.).
