Jan Przerwa is an associate in the Brussels office of Gibson Dunn, where he is a member of the firm's Antitrust and Competition, Artificial Intelligence, and Tech and Innovation Practice Groups.

Jan's practice covers EU tech regulation and competition law, with particular expertise in the Digital Services Act (DSA), Digital Markets Act (DMA), and AI Act, as well as abuse of dominance, merger control, and competition compliance. He advises clients on regulatory strategy, compliance design, engagement with the European Commission and national authorities, as well as litigation before the EU Courts. Jan has experience across a broad range of sectors, including online retail, social media, cloud computing, Internet of Things, online advertising, telecommunications, healthcare, and basic industries.

Jan holds an LL.B. (cum laude) from Maastricht University, an LL.M in Competition Law from King's College London, and an LL.M. in International Economic Law, Business & Policy from Stanford University.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn in 2022, Jan worked as a competition associate at an international law firm in Brussels.

Jan is a native Polish speaker and is also fluent in English.
