Hajar Qotb is an associate in the Paris office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher, where she serves as a member of the firm's Finance and Business Restructuring Practice Groups.

Hajar focuses her practice on all types of corporate and acquisition financings, advising public or private companies, senior lenders, mezzanine lenders or borrowers. She acts on investment-grade syndicated facilities, debt restructuring, and acquisition or sales of debt portfolios and advises on bespoke financings for companies that require more complex corporate financings, including "special situation" financings for companies struggling to raise debt post-restructuring.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn in 2019, she practiced for a year within M/HQ's Dubai corporate department.

Admitted to the Paris Bar, Hajar graduated from University Paris Dauphine in 2016 with a master degree in finance and bank law.

She speaks French and English fluently.
