Simon Reibel is an associate in the Paris office of Gibson Dunn and member of the firm's Litigation, International Arbitration, and Business Restructuring Practice Groups.

His practice focuses on restructuring and dispute resolution.

Simon acts on debt restructuring, where he advises companies of all sizes and sectors, insolvency practitioners, debtors and creditors in connection with pre-insolvency (ad hoc mandate and conciliation proceedings) and insolvency proceedings (safeguard, accelerated safeguard, reorganization, and liquidation proceedings).

He is experienced in insolvency litigation such as liability actions for insufficient assets, grace period requests and disputes arising in the context of classes of affected parties.

Simon is also experienced in dispute resolution where he advises clients on a variety of topics from civil law to commercial litigation.

Admitted to the Paris Bar in 2025, he graduated with a Master in Business law (DJCE) from the University Jean Moulin Lyon 3, as well as a Master's degree in Business Administration and Liquidation of Distressed Companies (ALED) from the University Paris I – Panthéon Sorbonne in 2022.

He speaks French and English.
