Markus Rieder is a partner in the Munich office of Gibson Dunn and Co-Chair of the firm's Transnational Litigation practice. He is also a member of the firm's Class Actions, Securities Litigation, and International Arbitration Groups.

Markus focuses his practice on complex commercial litigation, both domestic and cross-border, and national and international arbitration, as well as on compliance and white collar defense. He has substantial experience in the automotive, industrial, and manufacturing sectors.

He also advises related to the increased risks of ESG litigation, encompassing a variety of issues including climate and environmental protection matters, human rights and the new German Supply Chain Due Diligence Act, and represents clients in major cutting-edge issues such as climate protection lawsuits.

Markus is regularly recommended by the leading legal publications. Handelsblatt / The Best Lawyers™ 2026/2027 list him among the best lawyers in Germany for Arbitration and Mediation, Corporate Governance and Compliance, International Arbitration, and Litigation and recognized him as Lawyer of the Year for Corporate Governance and Compliance and, in 2023/2024, also as Lawyer of the Year for International Arbitration. Previously he was recognized as Lawyer of the Year for Arbitration and Mediation in 2021 and, for the third consecutive time in 2020, for Corporate Governance and Compliance. Lawdragon Global Litigation 500 2026 includes him among the world's leading dispute lawyers for Transnational Litigation and Securities Litigation. JUVE Handbook 2025/2026 lists him as "frequently recommended" for Dispute Resolution – Litigation and cites a client who described him as "a very good strategist". Competitors previously remarked that he "covers cases very deeply" and recognized him as "Top lawyer – if he bites the bullet, it'll be good" (JUVE Handbooks 2023/2024 and 2022/2023). The Legal 500 Germany 2026 and The Legal 500 EMEA 2026 recommend him for Dispute Resolution – Commercial Litigation, and cite references stating that he has "an excellent eye for the bigger picture and provides very strong strategic advice. His team is extremely well organized," and that his "team specializes in complex disputes, both nationally and internationally" (Legal 500 Germany 2025). Further references described him over the years as "a true litigator through and through, very perceptive, yet able to compromise where necessary and very pleasant to work with," as "an excellent litigator with bite, vision and stamina as well as a great understanding of process strategy and tactics," and as "a top litigator and an excellent advisor for all disputes and arbitration proceedings."

His recent experience includes advising*:

- Mercedes-Benz and other clients in climate change litigation
- Mercedes-Benz in diesel-related litigation
- UniCredit S.p.A. in multijurisdictional shareholder litigation following corporate
