

Sameera Ripley

Associate Attorney

sripley@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 415.393.8255

San Francisco

Sameera Ripley is an associate in the San Francisco office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. She currently practices in the firm's Litigation Department.

She earned her law degree in 2019 from the University of Virginia School of Law, where she was an Executive Editor on the Virginia Law Review. Sameera earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Macalester College.

Sameera is a member of the State Bar of California and is admitted to practice law before the United States District Court for the Central District of California.

Capabilities

Litigation
Administrative Law and Regulatory Practice
Appellate and Constitutional Law
Betting and Gaming
Class Actions
Consumer and Retail
Environmental Litigation and Mass Tort
Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits
FDA and Health Care
Labor and Employment
Land Use and Development
National Security

Credentials

Education

University of Virginia - 2019 Juris Doctor
Macalester College - 2012 Bachelor of Arts

Admissions

California Bar