

Ashley Romanias

Associate Attorney

aromanias@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 202.777.9430

Washington, D.C.

Ashley Romanias is an associate in the Washington, D.C. office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. She is a member of the firm's Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits practice group. Ashley's experience includes advising public and private companies on executive officer separations and other transitions. She also provides advice to clients regarding securities law disclosure and advises for-profit and nonprofit companies on corporate governance matters. She also advises clients in connection with mergers, acquisitions, carve-outs, add-ons, spin-offs, and other transactions.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Ashley worked at the Federal Housing Finance Agency and at another international law firm. In this capacity, she regulated executive compensation for executive officers at government-sponsored enterprises.

Capabilities

Executive Compensation and Employee Benefits
Betting and Gaming
Labor and Employment
Mergers and Acquisitions
Securities Regulation and Corporate Governance
Sports Law

Credentials

Education

Vanderbilt University Juris Doctor
University of Virginia Bachelor of Arts

Admissions

Minnesota Bar
District of Columbia Bar
New York Bar