Matthew M. Roose is a partner in Gibson Dunn's New York office. He is a member of the firm's Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Group. Matt has extensive experience representing ad hoc groups of creditors and investors of publicly- and privately-held debtors in special situations and liability management transactions, out-of-court restructurings and distressed acquisitions, and in-court chapter 11 processes through prepackaged, prearranged, and traditional restructurings. Matt also represents publicly- and privately-held debtors in special situations and liability management transactions, out-of-court restructurings and distressed acquisitions, and in-court chapter 11 processes through prepackaged, prearranged, and traditional restructurings. His practice also includes a broad range of transactional and litigation matters across a number of industries and restructuring processes.

Representative Clients and Transactions*:

- Represented an ad hoc group of first lien noteholders and second lien convertible noteholders in connection with Luminar Technologies, Inc. and certain of its subsidiaries' Chapter 11 cases. Luminar filed the Chapter 11 cases with the support of approximately 91.3% of the holders of 1L Notes and approximately 85.9% of the holders of 2L Notes.
- Represented HG Vora Capital Management and Nantahala Capital as Fossil Group's noteholders in the negotiation and implementation of an innovative exchange offer for new first-out and second-out senior secured notes due 2029 and associated incremental funding, warrants, and equity consideration, implemented by means of a single class English Part 26A restructuring plan.
- Represented holders of $2.4 billion of convertible notes issued by Wolfspeed, Inc. (NYSE: WOLF), a global leader in silicon carbide technology, in connection with its prepackaged chapter 11 plan of reorganization. This transaction involves approximately $6.7 billion of debt and includes a restructuring support agreement entered into with the company's key stakeholders. Convertible noteholders represented by Ropes & Gray will take majority ownership of the equity and have backstopped new capital in the form of $275 million of new second lien convertible notes.
- Represented an ad hoc group of bondholders of Exela Technologies, a global business process automation company, in connection with its chapter 11 cases, captioned In re DocuData Solutions, Inc. in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas. These proceedings involved the restructuring of $1.3 billion of funded debt and the ad hoc group provided a new money DIP facility of up to $80 million.
- Represented an ad hoc group of first lien lenders to Golden West Packaging in an amend and extend transaction.
- Represented an ad hoc group of lien lenders to Rather Outdoors in an amendment
