Michael A. Rosenthal is a retired partner in the New York and Texas offices of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He was previously Co-Chair of Gibson Dunn's Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Group for over 30 years. Mr. Rosenthal has extensive experience in reorganizing distressed businesses and related corporate reorganization and debt restructuring matters. He has represented complex, financially distressed companies, both in out-of-court restructurings and in pre-packaged, pre-negotiated and freefall chapter 11 cases, acquirors of distressed assets and investors in distressed businesses. Mr. Rosenthal's representations have spanned a variety of business sectors, including investment banking, private equity, energy, retail, shipping, manufacturing, real estate, engineering, construction, medical, airlines, media, telecommunications and banking. He has been recognized for his ability to build consensus, to mediate disputes, and to bring practical results to complicated business situations.

Mr. Rosenthal has broad experience in representation of the debtors in some of the most significant and unique multi-jurisdictional chapter 11 cases filed in the Southern District of New York: Arcapita Bank B.S.C.(c) (SDNY, Bahrain, Cayman Islands); and Almatris B.V. (SDNY, Netherlands, Germany).. Other debtor clients have included, among others, Mesquite Energy, Inc. (as successor to Sanchez Energy), TBS International, Ltd.; Building Materials Holding Corporation; Prentiss Copley Investment Group; FINOVA; FLAG Telecom; Atlantic Coast Airlines; First Republic Bank Corporation; Resorts International; Financial News Network (now known as CNBC); and National Gypsum Company (now known as Asbestos Claims Management Corporation). Non-debtor clients have included, among others, AIG, Truck Insurance Exchange, the George Kaiser Foundation (as the largest investor in Solyndra LLC), Investcorp and various of their portfolio companies, First Reserve and various of their portfolio companies, Intel, General Electric Credit Corporation, Textron Financial, L Catterton Partners, Oldcastle, Q Investments, Tenet Healthcare, Cooper Industries,

Mr. Rosenthal has been active in representing and providing advice to entities regarding their rights and exposure related to difficulties in the financial services sector, including issues related to loan restructurings, spin-offs, derivative products, securitizations and customer account issues. Among others, he has represented PWC (Zurich) as foreign representative in the chapter 15 case of Lehman Brothers Finance A.G. (SDNY, Switzerland), (the Swiss affiliate of Lehman that originated much of Lehman's non-U.S. derivatives business), the Lehman Brothers Private Equity Funds and various other large, public companies involved in the global restructuring of Lehman and its affiliates. In the aftermath of the financial crisis, Mr. Rosenthal played an important role in providing input and advice regarding proposed U.S. financial regulatory reform legislation—recently enacted as the Dodd-Frank Financial Reform Regulatory Act— including testifying before the House Judiciary Committee on issues related to the new Orderly Liquidation Authority enacted to facilitate the efficient resolution of systemically significant financial companies.

In addition to debtors, acquirors and investors, Mr. Rosenthal has represented creditors' committees, secured and unsecured creditors, bondholders and trustees. He also has substantial experience in advising private equity firms and others on distressed and fulcrum security investing strategies. In this regard, Mr. Rosenthal is frequently consulted to analyze the capital structure of companies and to advise on first lien/second liens issues and the strengths, weaknesses and relative priorities of outstanding bond and/or equity security issues.

Mr. Rosenthal is one of the country's leading lawyers on restructuring issues related to companies with asbestos, sex abuse and other mass tort liability. He has advised the trustees of some of the largest section 524(g) asbestos settlement trusts, companies seeking to resolve their asbestos, sex abuse and other mass tort exposure, insurers that provide coverage for mass tort liabilities, and entities seeking to acquire or invest in companies that have such exposure. Most recently, he is advising the AIG Member Companies in connection with their potential exposure for the sex abuse liability of the Boy Scouts of America and their affiliated local counsel and chartered organizations, and of various Catholic dioceses and archdioceses. And, he represented Truck Insurance Exchange in a recent landmark United States Supreme Court decision which unanimously rejected the insurance-neutrality doctrine and held that an insurer with financial responsibility for a bankruptcy claim is a 'party in interest that may object to a reorganization plan under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.' Truck Insurance Exchange v. Kaiser Gypsum, Inc., 144 S. Ct. 1414 (2024).

He has been ranked in Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business, Who's Who Legal, The Daily Deal, The Legal 500, The Best Lawyers in America® and Texas, New York Super Lawyers and Legal Media Group's Expert Guides Guide to the World's Leading Banking, Finance and Transactional Lawyers. Chambers has described Mr. Rosenthal as "a seasoned and experienced lawyer" and notes that clients appreciate his "help in navigating difficult bankruptcy issues," finding him "efficient, thoughtful and proactive" in his approach.

Mr. Rosenthal received his Juris Doctor in 1979 from the University of Chicago and his Bachelor of Arts degree summa cum laude in 1976 from the University of Virginia. He also studied at the London School of Economics and Political Science.

Mr. Rosenthal is a member of the Bars in New York and Texas.

Mr. Rosenthal has been responsible for or active in the representation of the following debtors, either in out-of-court restructurings or Chapter 11 cases or as reorganized entities:

- Mesquite Energy, Inc. (as successor to Sanchez Energy); Represented the reorganized entity, a Texas-based oil and gas producer which filed a chapter 11 case in the Southern District of Texas, in its post-effective date operations and liquidation which resulted in net asset value that vastly exceeded the emergence net asset value.
- Arcapita Bank B.S.C.(c): Representation of Arcapita Bank, a Bahrain-based investment bank and private equity company, and its affiliates, in their Chapter 11 cases filed in the Southern District of New York and in ancillary proceedings in the Cayman Islands. At the time of its chapter 11 filing, Arcapita, a leading global manager of Shari'ah-compliant alternative investments, had approximately $7 billion in assets under management related to approximately 30 portfolio companies located around the world. The cross-border and Shari'ah-compliant aspects of the Arcapita restructure were both complicated and unique. The confirmed chapter 11 plan of reorganization for Arcapita went effective on September 17, 2013. Gibson Dunn received The American Lawyer's 2014 Global Legal Award, for "Global Finance Deal of the Year: Restructuring and Insolvency (Middle East)," and The M&A Advisor's 2014 Turnaround Award for "Cross-Border Restructuring Deal of the Year (Over $1 Billion)" for its work on the Chapter 11 restructuring of Arcapita Bank

B.S.C.

- TBS International Ltd.: Representation of TBS International and its affiliates in their recent, successful Chapter 11 cases in the Southern District of New York. TBS is an international ocean shipping company. In April 2012, scarcely 50 days after filing for Chapter 11, TBS confirmed its prepackaged Chapter 11 plan.
- Almatris, B.V.: Representation of Almatris and its affiliates in their Chapter 11 cases filed in the Southern District of New York. The Frankfurt-based, Netherlands- incorporated debtors are one of the world's leading suppliers of alumina products. Despite a hotly contested valuation litigation surrounding the filing of a prepackaged plan of reorganization, a Chapter 11 plan of reorganization was, in a short five-month time frame, confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court and consummated.
- Building Materials Holding Corporation: Representation of Building Materials Holding and its subsidiaries in their successful, pre-negotiated Chapter 11 cases filed in Delaware. The debtors have a significant national presence in the building materials and construction services sectors, and confirmed a pre-negotiated plan of reorganization that, among other things, implemented a debt to equity conversion of the debtors' secured revolver and term debt owed to a 70-member bank/hedge fund syndicate.
- Lehman Brothers Finance, S.A.: Representation of PwC, as liquidator of Lehman Brothers Finance, A.G., a Swiss affiliate of Lehman that originated much of the non-U.S. derivatives business. The representation has involved advising PwC on its rights and obligations as liquidator, including those rights and obligations arising from the filing on behalf of the liquidator of a petition under Chapter 15 of the Bankruptcy Code for Lehman Brothers Finance, S.A., and on the tens of billions of dollars of intercompany claims between LBF and Lehman Brothers Holding Inc.
- Dexia, Ltd.: Represented Dexia, a large French/Belgian insurance holding company, on its exposure, investment and ownership interest in Financial Security Assurance Holdings, Inc. ("FSAH"), a U.S. entity that owns FSA Inc., one of the three largest U.S. monoline insurance carriers, and several non-insurance entities that issued billions of dollars of underwater Guaranteed Insurance Contracts. Mr. Rosenthal advised Dexia on its options relative to the sale of FSAH and/or the financial restructuring of these entities, and ultimately, assisted Dexia in the sale of FSAH to Assured Guaranty, Ltd.
- FINOVA Group Inc., et al.: Representation of Chapter 11 debtor in stand-alone reorganization involving approximately $11 billion of debt. Plan confirmed less than six months after filing.
- FLAG Telecom Holdings Limited: Representation of London-based Chapter 11 debtor in its six-month reorganization case that restructured more than $3 billion in debt.
