Thomas Scheffer is an associate in the New York office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher and is a member of the firm's Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Group. His practice focuses on corporate restructurings, distressed financing, liability management transactions, and other special situation transactions in acquisitions, out-of-court restructurings, and Chapter 11 cases. He advises debtors, creditors, boards of directors, ad hoc committees, and official committees on a range of issues, including fiduciary duties and corporate governance, as well as investors, purchasers, and other stakeholders evaluating strategic transactions with target companies facing actual and potential economic stress.

His representative matters include:*

- An ad hoc group of lenders to Cumulus Media Inc. and its debtor affiliates in connection with their prepackaged chapter 11 cases in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas. Prior to the filing, the ad hoc group entered into a restructuring support agreement to consummate a transaction that is expected to eliminate approximately $592 million of debt through the equitization of funded indebtedness, provide for $50 million of new convertible notes, and amend and restate the company's asset-based revolving credit facility to provide continued liquidity.
- An ad hoc group of lenders to Klöckner Pentaplast Group in connection with the company's prepackaged chapter 11 cases in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas. Prior to the filing, the ad hoc group provided a super-senior bridge loan and entered into a restructuring support agreement to support a comprehensive balance sheet restructuring that eliminated approximately €1.3 billion of funded debt and transitioned ownership of the company to the lenders.
- An ad hoc group of DIP lenders and term loan lenders in the chapter 11 cases of First Brands Group LLC, a global automotive aftermarket parts supplier. First Brands commenced bankruptcy proceedings in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Texas and received approval for $1.1 billion in new money debtor-in-possession financing provided by the ad hoc group with a roll-up of $3.3 billion of prepetition term loan debt held by participating lenders.
- An ad hoc group of first lien lenders to WW International, Inc. (d/b/a Weight Watchers) and its debtor affiliates in connection with their prepackaged chapter 11 cases which eliminated over $1.1 billion of debt.
- An ad hoc group of term, bridge, and DIP loan lenders in the chapter 11 cases of Ascend Performance Materials Holdings Inc. Ascend commenced bankruptcy
