Enno Schley is an associate in the Munich office of Gibson Dunn. He is a member of the firm's White Collar Defense and Investigations and Litigation Practice Groups. He is currently on secondment.

Enno advises clients in the area of corporate governance and compliance with a focus on white collar defense and internal investigations including the representation of companies before domestic and foreign authorities. He also advises on the structuring, implementation, and assessment of compliance management systems.

His litigation practice focuses on compliance-related litigation matters and proceedings as well as the development and execution of courses of action in complex factual constellations.

Handelsblatt / The Best Lawyers™ in Germany 2026/2027 have recognized Enno in their list "Ones to Watch" for Criminal Defense, Corporate Governance and Compliance, and Litigation.

He studied law at the Ludwig Maximilian University, Munich, Germany, and completed his clerkship at the High Court of Berlin, Germany. In 2018, Enno earned his doctor's degree from the University of Bayreuth, Germany. He has been admitted as a German lawyer (Rechtsanwalt) since 2019.

During his studies and his legal clerkship, Enno worked as a research assistant and trainee for different renowned international law firms in Munich, Germany, in Cape Town, South Africa, and the inhouse consulting of a DAX® company in Bonn, Germany.

Enno speaks German and English.
