Sebastian Schoon is a partner in the Frankfurt office of Gibson Dunn. He focuses his practice on banking and finance law.

Sebastian advises private equity funds, banks, financial institutions and corporates on corporate finance matters, including leveraged buyouts, management buyouts, and corporate-to-corporate transactions; real estate acquisition financing, development financing and subordinated debt. He advises on domestic as well as cross-border structured finance transactions. Sebastian also has vast experience in complex financial restructurings, such as loan-to-own, debt to equity swaps, trust structures, and financial reorganizations.

Handelsblatt / The Best Lawyers™ 2026/2027 listed him among the best lawyers for Banking and Finance Law in Germany. Chambers Global 2026 ranked him in Banking & Finance. Chambers Germany 2026 additionally ranked him in Real Estate: Finance for the tenth consecutive year. Clients say he "is a highly regarded lawyer with a very strong understanding of the German mid-market debt financing market," and that "Sebastian is very hands-on and pragmatic, and always looks to get the deal done. He is always looking for solutions." They also "felt very well represented by Sebastian Schoon. Both the negotiation side and the pragmatism were very good."

Sebastian's recent experience in counseling on the finance aspects of leveraged buyouts and recapitalization as well as corporate lending includes advising:

- Astorg Mid-Cap on the financing of its acquisition of a majority stake in hg medical from NORD Holding
