New York

Katharine Scott is an associate in the New York office of Gibson Dunn and is a member of the firm's Business Restructuring and Reorganization Practice Group. She advises creditors, ad hoc committees, trustees, companies, boards of directors, financial sponsors, and other stakeholders evaluating strategic transactions. Her practice spans chapter 11 cases, out-of-court corporate restructurings, debt exchanges, distressed investments, liability management transactions, insolvency matters, and other special situations.

She has advised clients across a wide range of industries, including technology, healthcare, aviation, shipping, media, retail, and consumer products. She has counseled many clients in proceedings before the U.S. Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York and has experience with both public company reorganizations and sponsor-backed transactions.

Katharine is admitted to practice in New York, the U.S. District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, and the Supreme Court of the United States. She has been recognized for multiple consecutive years as a Super Lawyers "Rising Star."
