Bryan Sohn is a litigation associate in Gibson Dunn's Dallas office. He previously clerked for the Honorable John B. Nalbandian of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

Bryan graduated in the top ten percent of his class (magna cum laude) from Harvard Law School in 2020. He served as Executive Editor of the Harvard Journal of Law & Public Policy and Executive Submissions Editor of the Harvard Journal on Legislation. Bryan earned his B.A. in History, First Class, from the University of Oxford in 2013.

Bryan represents clients across a broad spectrum of industries through all phases of litigation, from pre-suit investigations to appeals.

Recent Representative Matters:

- Erased more than $400 million in claimed damages in a fraud case involving failed plans to construct power plants using adapted jet engines. Secured a total summary judgment victory on behalf of client.
- Defeated the State of Louisiana at the Louisiana First Circuit Court of Appeal on behalf of a Fortune 5 client. Revived claim that the Louisiana Attorney General's retention of private counsel under a contingency fee arrangement violates the Louisiana Constitution.
- Secured a favorable settlement in a $62 million natural gas pipeline dispute on behalf of a leading energy infrastructure company.
- Served as the lead associate on over 40 retail power pricing disputes arising from Winter Storm Uri.
- Obtained a favorable reconsideration decision in the Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas and secured a successful settlement in a complex contract dispute on behalf of the world's largest refrigerated warehousing company.
- Defeated a petition for writ of injunction at the Texas Supreme Court and obtained emergency relief from the Texas First Court of Appeals in a dispute involving the Federal Arbitration Act on behalf of a $1.7 billion private equity fund.
- Persuaded the Fifth Circuit to send a putative, eight-figure class action to arbitration.
- Successfully represented a plaintiff REIT in a complex contract dispute related to a series of construction projects across the country.
- Successfully represented Keurig Dr Pepper as plaintiff in a complex contract dispute against the manufacturer of BodyArmor Sports Drink.
