Genta Stafaj is of counsel in the New York office of Gibson Dunn, where she practices in the Real Estate Department. She represents clients in a broad range of commercial real estate transactions, including acquisitions, dispositions, financing, joint ventures, development and leasing of commercial real property assets. She is currently on secondment.

Genta has played a key role in complex leasing matters involving major institutional players expanding their physical footprints, including representation in large-scale, long-term office leases in New York City and other core markets.

Genta earned her J.D. degree from Fordham University School of Law and her B.A. degree, summa cum laude, from Barnard College.

Genta is admitted to practice in the State of New York.
