Mike Titera is a partner in the Orange County office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher and a member of the Firm's Securities Regulation and Corporate Governance Practice Group. His practice focuses on advising public companies regarding securities disclosure and compliance matters, financial reporting, and corporate governance. Mr. Titera often advises clients on accounting and auditing matters and the use of non-GAAP financial measures. He also has represented clients in investigations conducted by the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

Mr. Titera's clients range from large-cap companies with global operations to small-cap companies in the pre-revenue phase. His clients operate in a range of sectors, including the retail, technology, pharmaceutical, hospitality, and financial services sectors.

Mr. Titera is a frequent author on a range of securities law issues. His recent publications include articles in Insights and Deal Lawyers. Mr. Titera also co-authors a chapter regarding audit committees in the treatise "A Practical Guide to SEC Proxy and Compensation Rules" and contributed to a chapter about accounting-related matters in "Director's Handbook: A Field Guide to 101 Situations Commonly Encountered in the Boardroom," a recent publication of the American Bar Association.

Mr. Titera earned his law degree in 2009 from the UCLA School of Law, where he was elected to the Order of the Coif. He earned a Bachelor of Science degree magna cum laude in Accountancy from Brigham Young University in 2006.

Mr. Titera is admitted to practice law in the State of California and the District of Columbia.
