Jessica Valenzuela is a partner in the Palo Alto office of Gibson Dunn and a member of the Securities Litigation Practice Group. Jessica's practice focuses on securities, corporate governance and other complex business litigation, including the defense of securities class actions, derivative suits and M&A-related class actions. In addition to representing clients in state and federal courts, she also represents companies, boards and special committees in government and internal investigations and counsels public and private companies and their directors and officers about a wide range of issues relating to corporate governance, insider trading, disclosure obligations, director and executive compensation matters and litigation risk and strategy.

Jessica has also litigated commercial disputes in international and domestic arbitrations. Her clients have included companies and individuals in the hardware, software, semiconductor, biotechnology, pharmaceutical, finance, internet and digital-media industries.

Jessica is ranked among the leading Securities Litigation practitioners in California by Chambers USA: America's Leading Lawyers for Business. She is recognized by The Best Lawyers in America® for her expertise in Commercial Litigation and Litigation Securities (2023-2026). The Legal 500 US 2025 guide distinguishes her as a "Recommended Lawyer" in Securities Litigation: Defense. Jessica has also been named to The Daily Journal's list of "Top Women Lawyers" and The Recorder's "Women Leaders in Tech Law." LMG Life Sciences 2022 acknowledged Jessica as a "Life Sciences Star." She was also recognized as a Benchmark Litigation "Future Star," to the Lawyers of Color "Hot List" and Silicon Valley Latino's "40 Under 40 Latinos2Watch." In 2014, she was a Fellow on the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity.

Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Jessica was a partner at Cooley LLP.

Jessica graduated from Stanford Law School with distinction in 2002. She received her Bachelor of Arts from Stanford University in 1999, where she graduated with departmental honors.
