

Nicholas C. Watts

Associate Attorney

nwatts@gibsondunn.com

T: +1 332.253.7784

New York

Nicholas Watts is an associate in the New York office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher. He is a member of the firm's Litigation Practice Group.

Nicholas has experience in a variety of matters, including disputes involving employment issues and commercial litigation. He also has experience in trials and internal investigations. Nicholas maintains an active pro bono practice.

Nicholas graduated from Georgetown Law in 2023, where he was a research assistant to Professor Julie R. O'Sullivan. He received his Bachelor of Arts in Business, Organizations & Society from Franklin & Marshall College in 2017.

Nicholas is admitted to practice in the State of New York and before the United States District Courts for the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York.

Capabilities

Litigation
Labor and Employment
Securities Litigation
Trials
White Collar Defense and Investigations

Credentials

Education

Georgetown University - 2023 Juris Doctor
Franklin & Marshall College - 2017
Bachelor of Arts

Admissions

New York Bar