Sara D. Williams is a litigation associate in the San Francisco office of Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. Her practice focuses on complex commercial litigation, internal and government investigations, and labor and employment law.

Sara previously served as a law clerk to the Honorable Jesus G. Bernal of the U.S. District Court for the Central District of California. She earned her J.D. from UCLA School of Law in 2020, where she served as a Senior Editor of the UCLA Law Review, Class President, and Co-Chair of OUTLaw, the school's LGBTQ+ student organization. While in law school, she was awarded First Place in both the Dean's Brief Writing Competition and the 1L Moot Court Competition. In 2017, Sara earned her B.A., cum laude, from the University of California, Davis as a dual-major in History and Political Science. She was elected to Phi Beta Kappa and received department awards in both areas of study.

Sara is a member of the State Bar of California.
