Sara Zamani is a litigation associate in the Denver office of Gibson, Dunn, & Crutcher. She is a member of the firm's White Collar Defense and Investigations, Litigation and FCA Practice Groups. Sara's practice focuses on government and internal investigations and white collar criminal matters. Additionally, she advises clients on complex regulatory environments and the effectiveness of their internal policies and compliance programs.

Sara received her Juris Doctor, cum laude, in 2022 from the University of California, Hastings College of the Law, where she focused her studies in Corporate Law. While at UC Hastings, she competed on the Moot Court team and participated in the Startup Legal Garage where she advised San Francisco-based startups on general corporate matters. Prior to law school, Sara graduated with Honors from the University of Toronto with a Bachelor of Arts, where she completed a double major in Political Science and Criminology.

She is admitted to practice law in the States of Colorado and California.
