Finn Zeidler is a partner in the Frankfurt office of Gibson Dunn. He is a member of the firm's Litigation and White Collar Defense and Investigations Practice Groups.

Finn focuses his litigation practice on corporate and commercial litigation and arbitration, often with a transatlantic background, as well as on white collar defense, regulatory investigations, and compliance matters that often have cross-border elements. He has significant experience in the high-tech, automotive, and the banking and finance industries, as well as renewable energies.

Most recently, The Legal 500 Deutschland 2026 and The Legal 500 EMEA 2026 have recommended Finn for Commercial Litigation and Compliance, especially for criminal law interface and cross-border advice. The Legal 500 2024 also ranked him for Internal Investigations and cited a reference: "For me the best white collar crime lawyer for bank mandates. He guides clients through critical situations both safely and efficiently." Chambers Germany 2026 continues to recognize him as a Notable Practitioner for Compliance in Germany. Handelsblatt / The Best Lawyers™ 2026/2027 list him among the best lawyers for Arbitration and Mediation, Litigation, Criminal Defense, Banking and Finance Law, and Corporate Governance and Compliance Practice in Germany and recognized him as Lawyer of the Year 2025 for Corporate Governance and Compliance. JUVE Handbook 2026/2027 lists him once again as "frequently recommended" for Dispute Resolution – Litigation, quoting a competitor who described him as "one of the few renowned generalists who achieves outstanding results across practice areas." In addition, he was named among the 2026 Lawdragon Global Litigation 500, the list recognizing the 500 best dispute lawyers worldwide, for Global Litigation and Investigations.

His representative cases include:

- Representing international financial institutions in criminal and regulatory investigations by German and U.S. authorities into allegations of tax fraud, money laundering, sanctions violations, illegal granting of loans, market manipulations, and illegal selling of securities.
- Representing financial institutions in banking-law related disputes and related regulatory investigations. This included, in particular, representing one of Germany's largest banks in a rare joint investigation by the SEC and the German BaFin (the financial markets and banking regulator) into an alleged market manipulation of U.S.-listed stocks and a different international bank in relation to tax fraud allegations.*
- Representing companies listed in Germany in investigations by public prosecutors, BaFin, and the German Financial Reporting Enforcement Panel, into alleged violations of securities laws, in particular market manipulations or violations of ad-hoc disclosure duties, alleged accounting violations and alleged tax fraud.
