GIBSON DUNN

Mark Schonfeld and David Woodcock Named Among Securities Docket's 2024 Enforcement Elite

Accolades | November 7, 2024

Securities Docket

Securities Docket named Mark Schonfeld and David Woodcock among its 2024 Enforcement Elite, which honors "the best securities enforcement defense lawyers in the business." The list was published on November 7, 2024.

Mark Schonfeld is a co-chair of the firm's Securities Enforcement Practice Group. His practice focuses on the representation of financial institutions, public companies, hedge funds, accounting firms and private equity firms in investigations conducted by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), Department of Justice, States Attorneys General, Financial Industry Regulatory Authority and other regulatory organizations.

David Woodcock is a co-chair of the firm's Securities Enforcement Practice Group. His practice focuses on internal investigations and SEC defense, with a particular emphasis on accounting and financial reporting, corporate compliance, and audit/special committee investigations.

Related People

Mark K. Schonfeld

Related Capabilities

Securities Enforcement

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com